

DaySpring Academy is looking for an engaging, qualified teacher to teach middle school and high school history part-time beginning Mid-August, in Maryland Heights, MO.

About DaySpring Academy

DaySpring Academy is a private, K-12 Christian school, with a hybrid at-home and at-school schedule. Students attend 2-3 days of classes in school and complete their work at home on the opposing days. Teachers plan a full week of lessons to be completed in the class and at home. Our K-6th grade students come to school on Tuesdays and Thursdays; our 7th-12th grade students come to school on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

DaySpring has a creative and friendly environment. It embraces a 21st Century Learning approach to education, focusing on collaboration, critical thinking, effective communication and creativity in all content areas. We bring education to life in relevant and engaging ways. Our teachers enjoy a part-time schedule where they can teach in a rewarding classroom and have days off for other pursuits and family responsibilities.

Position Summary

DaySpring Academy only hires individuals with a degree and certification for K-6th grade. We consider hiring individuals with a degree in the teaching content areas for 7th-12th grades. Those applying should be passionate about educating the next generation in creative and innovative ways and comfortable with arts-integration in the classroom. This year's classes will include Eastern Hemispheres, Western Civilizations, and Civics/Government. Next year's classes will include Ancient Civilizations, American History, and World History. Compensation will range from $27 - 33 per teaching hour, based upon qualifications and experience.

To Apply:

Please submit a cover letter and resume to academy@dayspringarts.org. In the subject line please use "Middle and High School History." No phone calls please.
